Integro Technologies, an Aurionpro Company, Recognized as Category Leader in Five Key Areas of Corporate Lending by Chartis

August 26, 2024: Integro Technologies, an Aurionpro Company, is proud to announce its recognition as a Category Leader in five key Quadrants of Corporate Lending Chartis, a prominent independent research and advisory firm.

Integro has been named a Category Leader in the following quadrants:

- 1. Collateral Management System
- 2. Limits Management System
- 3. Loan Management Systems
- 4. Loan Origination Systems
- 5. Private and Non-bank Credit Systems

Integro Technologies offers a highly specialized product portfolio for lending operations, serving leading banks spread across the globe. Its cutting-edge expertise empowers banks to achieve digital transformation in the Lending space. Integro's solutions equip lenders to efficiently grow their banking book and optimize their risk-reward equation through efficient management of Collateral, controlled credit risk, streamlined loan processes, and catering to the unique needs of private lenders and non-bank financial institutions.

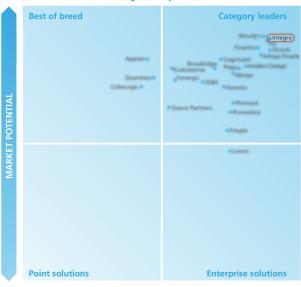

"Integro Technologies continues to expand its product coverage throughout the credit management and lending operations lifecycle, starting with the key process of loan origination, and covering the entire loan management workflow (including managing complex collateral and limits frameworks)", said Anish Shah, Research Director at Chartis. "This expansion across various types of institution, supported by an appropriate technology infrastructure and deep domain expertise in the credit lending space, is reflected in Integro's category leader position in all the quadrants."
